DIRECTORS COMMENTS

SAFETY IS OUR #1 PRIORITY

PLEASE check the sign on the gate to see whether the Range is open, it could change daily.

Practice safe muzzle control at all times. You must pick up your brass and take down your paper targets, ALWAYS!

Nominations for officers and 3 directors took place at our November meeting. All sitting officers were nominated to continue to serve in their current positions. Earl Gelineau, Jack McPherson and Steve Champa were nominated to serve for another 3 years as a Board of Director at Horse Pond Fish & Game Club.

Supper will be served tonight starting at 5:30pm. We are asking all people that participate in supper to contribute at least $8 toward their meal.

FOR ALL MEMBERS:

- WE PAINTED AND CONDITIONED THE RANGE THIS SUMMER. WE PUT A NEW ROOF AND SIDING ON THE TRAILER. WE BUILT A STAND FOR CROSS BOW SHOOTING & SIGHTING IN WE INSTALLED NEW TOILETS IN THE CLUB HOUSE.
- Please practice firearm etiquette while at the range. No walking on the platform when another member is shooting. Do not handle your firearm when not shooting, lay it down. And you MUST be always with your guest and supervise their shooting. One guest at a time is the RULE.
- We will be sponsoring a bison hunt to Maine. You can purchase your ticket from Butch. Tickets are available for $25 each.
- Gary Charbonneau was nominated to Life Membership at our BOD meeting. He joined HPF&GC in 1995. He is our director of safety/security.
- Dennis Dean died on October 30. He served as a life member and as the financial secretary for many years. He will be missed.
