Organizational Policies

Integrity

HPF&GC understands that integrity is fundamental to how we run our organization and essential to maintain our compliance with policies and legal requirements. We expect honesty from our members in all their actions, including the handling of money and property for which they are entrusted. We insist on integrity of all duties performed. We also expect the membership to be honest in their assessment of themselves and the duties they are entrusted to perform.

Teamwork

Throughout our organization, we capitalize on the advantages of working together for a common purpose. Although defined directorship and member responsibilities are assigned to specific individuals within the club, we act as a cooperative team. Combined efforts, which help any part of our organization, serve to strengthen our entire organization.

Respect

We listen with an open mind to suggestions and are attentive to problems. By talking with and listening to our members, we can often help them in performing their responsibilities and, at the same time, learn things that can benefit the organization.

Participation

Directors should invite help and encourage suggestions for improvement. In working together this way, we create an environment of teamwork that benefits our club and our membership.

Perspective Members

We want all applicants to think well of us, whether or not we pass them to the general membership. We welcome sponsorships through our membership. We look at people whose personal objectives are compatible with our organizations objectives.

Safety

The safety of our membership and the general public is of utmost importance to us. We do not tolerate unsafe practices and encourage the involvement of the membership in safety awareness activities.

Complaints

Complaints represent opportunities to correct problems. Members should never be reluctant to bring a complaint to a director. They often show us how we can improve our organization.

Brand or logo

It is extremely important to maintain the distinctiveness of our logo and protect the goodwill and reputation of our organization.

Charities

As a non-profit charitable trust, we support selective local charities. These selected charities share common interest with our organization and its objectives. We make limited gifts to local charities. Such contributions are done in a way to avoid incurring continued obligations.

In closing, nothing we do or hope to do, can be accomplished without wholehearted support from our members. Only with this support can our Executive Board, working within the framework of our objectives, carry out their responsibilities in ways that will ensure meeting those objectives.
